

PRESIDENT OF THE S. P. COMPANY UNDER KNIFE—PORTER BROTHERS HAVE FAILED—DUPPLICITY OF TURKS

HARRIMAN UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Appendix is Removed and the Patient is Doing Well.

Physicians Expect the S. P. President to Be Around in Fourteen Days.

NEW YORK, May 20.—E. H. Harriman was operated upon today for appendicitis. At the conclusion of the operation the physicians announced that it had been successful.

The operation took place at 8 o'clock at the hotel Netherlands.

The patient was laid on a specially constructed platform and the ether was administered by Dr. Wm. T. Bull, while the other physicians in attendance were Drs. Walker, Fenton, Janeway, Lyle and Morris, the family physician.

The operation was performed at the hotel because two of Mr. Harriman's children are suffering from scarlet fever and his home is quarantined.

Mr. Harriman was in excellent condition, having taken a drive in the park yesterday afternoon. He was not at all nervous and had no fear that the operation would prove dangerous.

Miss Mary Harriman has been her father's nurse since his return from his western trip.

She was at the hotel in an adjoining room during the operation.

When the appendix was removed it was found to be much inflamed.

The operation was made at the request of Mr. Harriman, who said he did not want to run the risk of a recurrence of the attack which might come at an inopportune time.

WHAT THE DOCTOR SAYS.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Dr. Lyle, who was attending physician at the operation said:

"The operation on Mr. Harriman was performed by Dr. Hull. It was very successful. The condition of the patient was favorable.

"The appendix was slightly inflamed but no puss was found.

"It was a very clean case. Recovery is almost certain.

"Mr. Harriman is expected to be out in fourteen days.

"The operation took an hour.

"An incision of about two inches was made."

long enough for the papers to be served however, as they immediately took a train for this coast.

The New York resident Consul from Denmark followed the couple here and when they arrived in San Francisco was prepared to again serve the papers when once more they slipped through his fingers.

That the defaulters were located in this city is largely due to the efforts of Policeman Andrews who resides in the neighborhood in which the couple were arrested. He had read the notice which had been posted at Police headquarters telling of the crime and flight of the pair, and recognized Jorgensen and the woman by the pictures which accompanied the police circular.

According to the warrants, Jorgensen and his companion removed the money from the vaults last month. Previously to the alleged robbery, however, both had applied for vacation which was granted. When neither returned after the expiration of the vacation, the bank officials became suspicious and an investigation was made with the result that the loss and the couple's flight were discovered together.

The fugitives were tracked to New York. They did not stay in that place

The receiver appointed is Henry L. Wilson of Chicago, and in a telegraphic communication to Thomas H. Lynch and Charles B. Bills, local agents of the company, he has designated them as temporary receivers in this city to act as his representatives until articles of incorporation are straightened out.

The Porter Brothers are one of the largest firms in the United States, dealing directly with the growers of fresh fruit and the producers of the product of orchards and vineyards. It has branches in New York, Boston, Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul, San Francisco and Los Angeles, and agencies in all fruit-producing sections of the country. No less than 50,000 of the assets of the firm are located in California. All of the various managers and agents have been telegraphed to by Receiver Wilson to conduct the business in his name for the present, as he has assumed full management.

The amount of the company's liabilities are not known here, but it is assumed by those in a position to make an estimate that they may run into millions.

In his message to the San Francisco representatives of the receiver, he now engaged in taking an inventory of the Pacific agencies and is endeavoring to ascertain the exact condition of the company's affairs.

The receiver is a prominent financier of Chicago and is looked upon to protect the interests of the creditors.

At the local offices of Porter Brothers it was announced that the failure was due to the Chicago banks for the immediate payment of several heavy debts.

"It is probably," said Charles H. Bill, the local manager, "that the banks pressed their claims without giving the Chicago office sufficient notice. In other words, the Chicago office was 'caught short.' No doubt the company has sufficient money to pay all its creditors, but lacked time in which to get it together."

One estimate places the possible liabilities at $3,000,000.

Prominent Divines From All Over the Country Will Take Part in the Debates on Leading Questions.

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—With the arrival today of over a hundred carloads of commissioners, their wives and a large number of laymen, on special trains over both overland roads and on the regular trains from all parts of California, the 115th general Presbyterian Assembly was fairly inaugurated. At 6:45 this morning the first special trains bearing commissioners arrived, these being two specials from Boston. They were followed during the day by large delegations from Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburgh and Chicago, the last being due to arrive late tonight. Everything that medical science could suggest was done, but death ended her agonies early this morning.

STOCKTON HAS A BIG FIRE.

MANY MERCHANTS SUFFER LOSS BY FLAMES IN SLOUGH CITY.

STOCKTON, Cal. May 20.—The loss by last night's fire, which started in the grocery department of Redlick Brothers' department store on Main street, between California and American, is estimated at over $130,000. The heaviest loss—between $65,000 and $70,000—is sustained by Redlick on the stock, which was totally destroyed. Manager Abrams stated this morning that the insurance papers were all in San Francisco. The books of the firm were destroyed.

It is estimated that the loss to the stock of the Ruhl Stove and Hardware Company, which owned all the buildings occupied by itself and Redlick, is about $20,000, the building loss being about $15,000. Mr. Ruhl is in San Francisco, but is expected here today. It is said that Mr. Ruhl's insurance will nearly cover his loss. Until he returns, however, it cannot be stated to a certainty.

The other losses and insurance are as follows:

Courtland Lodging House, owned by Eldridge & Fanning—loss $30,000 insurance $8,000.

C. E. Babcock, photographer in Courtland building—loss $1,000; insurance $400.

H. McComas, druggist in same building—loss $1,800; insurance $3,400.

Charles Pratt, lessor of lodging house—loss $500; insurance $2,000.

N. Katten, Temple of Economy—loss through water small; fully covered by insurance.

O. H. Hess, dying and cleaning works—loss through water, fully covered by insurance.

John Quinn, paint store across the street-front destroyed by fire; fully covered.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It was first discovered in the dry department of the store shortly before midnight, and people who passed by the store at that hour declared they heard an explosion. Manager Abrams says this is impossible, however, as there was no oil of any kind near the place where the fire started, and there was no gas in the basement. In his opinion the fire was started through rats or mice setting fire to the matches in some way. The Redlick and Ruhl building was a one story brick. It was completely gutted. It will be rebuilt.

TAX COLLECTION DID RIGHT. ROOSEVELT AT REDDING.

NO DEFENSE IS REQUIRED FOR THE CONDUCT OF JAMES B. BARBER.

A silly attempt was made by a local paper yesterday to make it appear that Tax Collector James B. Barber was not complying with the law in retaining his custody taxes paid in duplicate. The attempt was inspired by political enemies and hardly deserved serious attention.

The matter briefly stated, is that two persons sometimes pay the taxes assessed against the same item of property. Generally this is done by different members of a family or by persons jointly interested in the property or by friends and relatives of the owner. Instances of duplicate payments occur most frequently just prior to the date of delinquency. The Tax Collector turns the original payment over to the County Treasurer and the other he retains to be refunded on demand.

A book is kept in which all duplicate payments are registered, together with the names of the payors, the date of payment, amount and property assessed. Whenever practicable the parties making such payments are called and requested to call and get their money. The major portion of it is always refunded by the time the succeeding year's taxes are ready for collection.

The duplicate tax money is kept intact to be paid out when the owner appears and surrenders the receipt given for it. The fund varies very much. It sometimes reaches the neighborhood of $2000 at the close of tax collecting, but is drawn out till it falls to a trifling sum later on.

It has been the rule to retain the duplicate taxes and return them on presentation of the receipt; even since I had anything to do with the office, said Mr. Barber. "The District Attorney says I am doing right and there is no law requiring me to pay money into the County Treasury that belongs to private parties that has been paid to me by mistake."

"An accurate record of such transactions is kept and the money held subject to the order of the owner. This system is a great convenience to the owner as if money be paid into the county, the owner must go before the Board of Supervisors and obtain a warrant for its refunding. The sums are usually small, and to get them causes as much trouble as they are worth. Now all a man has to do is to surrender his receipt at the office and get his money."

"I don't see that Mr. Barber is doing anything wrong," said District Attorney Allen. "He is certainly not doing anything morally reprehensible, and nothing that is unlawful so far as I know. The law directs the Supervisors to return duplicate taxes, but it does not require the Tax Collector to pay such money into the County Treasury. It does not belong to the county. The Tax Collector of course, would be required to account for such money on going out of office—pay it into the County Treasury or turn it over to his successor."

This statement clearly shows the emptiness of the pretext on which Mr. Barber is assailed.

PORTER BROTHERS FAIL.

Thomas H. Lynch, who is associated with Mr. Bills in the local management of the concern, said in an interview:

"In California the affairs of the company are in excellent condition. The contracts made for this season promise to be the most profitable in years. More than that, the San Francisco office has over $200,000 put in California crops, which it probably could recover if given reasonable time."

"At this season the demands upon us are greater than at any other time in the year. We are now putting out our money in coming crops and our income is limited. A few months hence, when the fruit season is in full swing, the situation will be reversed. Our plan is to do as great and our outlay as much."

"In San Francisco our business is done through the San Francisco National Bank, the London, Paris and American Bank and the Donohoe Kelly Banking Company. So far as we have had there been no difficulty in getting money on account of the present financial situation. If they have anything to do with the bankruptcy proceedings in Chicago, I know nothing about it."

"I should be glad that the action of the Chicago court does not deprive Porter Brothers of their business. The finding as I understand it is that the company is temporarily involved and that the best interests of the creditors require the appointment of a receiver."

"The receiver will conduct the affairs of the company along the lines it has been pursued for years. He will endeavor to make the business pay a profit and if he succeeds, will pay the outstanding bills and turn the company over to the stockholders."

"The California offices will be continued as before. In most places all the old employees will be retained. So far as I can see, there can be absolutely no loss to our clients in California."

Porter Brothers started in business on Eleventh street in this city some time ago. Then they went to Los Angeles and finally opened agencies in the East.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE MEN WHO DO AND DON'T DO GOOD WORK FOR MONEY.

The official standing of the teams in the Pacific Coast League is as follows: Won. Lost. Per cent.

Los Angeles	31	31	57.8
Sacramento	27	17	61.1
San Francisco	34	21	53.3
Oakland	17	24	41.5
Portland	19	28	40.4
Seattle	11	28	32

Oscar Jones, who graduated from California into the Eastern big leagues, has yet to face a team that can beat him. He has five straight wins and a two-victories tie to his credit thus far. Schmidt, another Californian, got his second beating last Friday.

Morley has telegraphed for Pitcher Drinkwater and will show him to the local fans before the series is over. It is because of Wheeler's disability that Drinkwater is called for.

As was expected with Thomas, who pitches for Sacramento, and Hall who is on the firing line for Los Angeles, have attracted the attention of the big league managers. The former can get $3000 a year in the East, while Hall can pull down $2,400 from the National League team. Neither will accept the offers, preferring to do time here.

It is too bad that Billy Hammond, the clever little backstop, did not decide to throw over his business life when Pete Lenahan asked him to join the Oakland ranks instead of accepting the offer of Henry Harris. Hammond is handy and handy with the stick and will make a valuable addition to the San Francisco ranks.

"Rube" Waddell, another graduate California baseball player, has been assigned to go on the stage. He will appear in that little matter called "A Stain of Guilt." Rube will not take to the boards until after the baseball season closes. His part has not been assigned to him as yet, but it will be a heavy, thinking one.

Johnny Dobbs, who was going to play on this Coast, has been signed by Brooklyn to play in the place of Householder while that Californian is laid up.

The first no-hit game of this season was pitched by McClinton of the Beaumont Club of South Texas League, but his wildness allowed the Galvestons to win by a score of 1 to 2.

Hanlon of the Eastern League seems to be satisfied to play the season without a left-handed pitcher. He signed Job Blevitt, the southpaw, but released him after keeping him tow without trying him out. Blevitt has been taken up by Toronto.

Hanlon sent a wire to Henry Harris telling him that he could have Blevitt, but Henry reasoned that if Blevitt wouldn't suit Hanlon, he would not please the Pacific Coast League patrons, so his answer was no.

It is understood that Pitcher Frank Arshanes, who asked for and was given his release by San Francisco, is slated for a berth in the Salt Lake team of the Kansas City bunch.

Morley's men were only able to connect with Harris' "Pee Wee" Lindsey yesterday for a single and a two-bagger so the Loo Loos looked like tail-enders with the score reading 5 to 3. Both of the bungles were made by Hulbert, who seemed to have a thorough knowledge of "Pee Wee's" stock in trade.

About three hundred people from Portland braved the rain to see Sacramento and Portland play yesterday, but were disappointed as the game was postponed. All were given rain-checks.

Shay, Lynch, Meany, Kruis and Hoy all demonstrated larceny ability and stole bases freely in the Golden Gate game yesterday afternoon.

The game between Seattle and Oakland was called in the second inning at Seattle yesterday on account of the rain. It was lucky for Lohman's pets, for the score stood 2 to 0 in Wilson's favor.

Lindsey struck out three men yesterday, while Hall did the same with two players.

It is expected that Billy Hammond will play in a Harris uniform today. He was to arrive and participate in the Golden Gate game yesterday, but at the last moment he was detained and wired Harris to that effect.

Park-Wilson needs some pitchers and needs them immediately. Hugues.

OLYMPIC CLUB MEET.

ANDY GALLAGHER AND LOUIS BALLETRO WILL BOX FOUR ROUNDS.

Tonight Andy Gallagher and Louis Ballestro will meet in a four-round go for the amateur heavyweight championship of the coast. At the recent tournament both men were defeated for the championship cup by William Bates but the trophy was withheld on account of the fact that Bates was shown to be a professional. The meeting tonight will settle that class and the winner will be the champion.

In addition to this match the club has arranged an attractive card of bouts. Joe Carroll the amateur champion featherweight will meet Eddie Astor, who is said to be very clever and Joe Angel will have a go with Todd Byrrett. James Kane and Jack Evans, two 125 pounders, are to face each other and Joe Reilly and Jimmy Little will have a fisty argument at 127 pounds. The other matches are: Billy McDonald vs. Joe Collins, Bob Cairns vs. Al Young and George Murray vs. Tom McCreal. Eddie Graney is to referee the bouts.

A thought Young Corbett was the picture of health he was sadly out of condition, having too much surplus fat and would have been easy money to any second rater.

BOWLING GAMES.

DR. BIRDSALL WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP BY A GOOD SCORE.

Dr. G. W. Birdsall by defeating J. L. Garde last night won the individual championship of San Francisco, at ten pins. The matches were rolled on the Crescent alleys and were witnessed by a large crowd. By the terms of the tournament he had to beat his man in two series in order to win the medal and championship and he did so.

In the first series Birdsall rolled 188, 199 and 191 with a total of 573 against 184, 143 and 169 and a total of 496 for his opponent. The second series were more closely contested and Birdsall won by the narrow margin of 14 pins. His score was 170, 176, 173—519 and that of his opponent 168, 147, 190—505.

FAVORITE ATHLETIC CLUB IN EARNEST ON MANY NEW KINDS OF WORK.

An unusual amount of interest is being manifested in San Francisco in the pugilistic carnival which is to be given at Mechanics' Pavilion on Friday night for the benefit of the Landmarks fund. This fact was clearly demonstrated by the fact that a large number of enthusiasts sent in orders for seats yesterday although the sale did not open until this morning. Today the advance sale is very large and an immense attendance is assured.

Those who attend the carnival will witness a gathering of stellar pugilists such as was never gathered together under one roof before and each one of them will take some part in the show. James J. Corbett, who is conceded to be the cleverest boxer the world has ever seen, will box three rounds with his sparring partner, Yank Kenney.

The champion heavyweight, Jim Jeffries, will be on hand and together with Corbett and Graney will judge the merits of the different bouts. Another world's champion will be on hand. He is Joe Gans, the premier lightweight, and other well-known professionals will be Britt and Fitzgerald.

One of the best bouts of the evening will be that between Joe Angell and C. R. Cooper of West Oakland. The former is one of the cleverest amateurs in the business and Cooper made Britt lusty to defeat him before the latter turned professional.

NEW YORK, May 20.—George E. Smith, "Pittsburgh Phil," has declared, according to the World, that he will sell all his race horses and confine his efforts to picking winners. GOLF GAMES.

H. C. GOUCHER WINS THE FINAL ROUND IN TOURNAMENT.

At the golf links of the San Francisco Golf Club at the Presidio yesterday, H. C. Goucher won the final round of the handicap tournament by defeating T. G. McConkey by the score of 2 up and 1 to play.

The tournament was started about ten days ago and in the final round yesterday Goucher, played from the tee, while his opponent star ed from the fourth mark. The play was over eighteen holes and at the end of nine holes it looked very much as if McConkey would win as he was playing excellent golf, but Goucher managed to overcome the lead in the last nine holes and win out.

The match was considered to be the best of the tournament and demonstrates that Goucher is one of the strongest players on the San Francisco team when playing on the home grounds.

NEW THOUGHTS.

Are You Growing More Attractive as You Advance in Life?

BY VALENTINE.

"The mind keeps itself occupied with right thinking; it is impossible to be plain, ugly or uninteresting in late life," says Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in "New Thoughts Magazine." "The withered and drawn faces of many indicate withered emotions and drawn and converted ambitions. The dried and shallow face tells the story of dried up sympathies and hopes. The furrowed face tells of acid, cares eating into the heart." He who understands his own divine nature will grow more beautiful with the passing of time. Are you growing more attractive as you advance in life? Study yourself and answer these questions to your own soul, for in the answer depends the decision whether you will really love and trust."

"Given a healthy body," says Dr. R. V. Pierce, a specialist in woman's diseases, of Buffalo, N. Y., "and a healthy mind, and every one can cultivate and enjoy happiness." Riches do not make happiness, nor does it do to worry about to-morrow. Do what you can now. Do the best you know how, then boldly face the after-a-while. In nine cases out of ten the person who worries, who can't sleep nights, and feels blue and at discord with all the world is the person whose stomach is not quite right.

TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

We must eat to live. We must eat properly to be beautiful and to be healthy. Digest well. If one article of food does not agree with you try another. But don't try cosmetics until you have corrected every fault of digestion. Pretty women often sacrifice their beauty to digestion. It is a fact that any form of dyspepsia may in a few days transform a clear, white skin into a mass of pimples and black spots. A beautiful woman has the beauty of her stomach. The oft quoted plauso, "The way to a man's heart lies through his stomach," is true in a medical sense. For a distended stomach caused by indigestion will cause heart palpitation. If the stomach is inflamed or dyspeptic, the blood does not get the food it requires. If the blood is watery, if it has accumulated poisons, every other organ of the body will suffer—heart, liver, lungs and kidneys. Treat the stomach first.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery maintains a person's nutrition by enabling one to eat, retain, digest and assimilate the proper nutritive food. It overcomes the gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and thus the two coyotes worked the game in conjunction. One watched and the other ate.

Then Rev ran out into the grain field and found a little beaten pathway which he followed out into the middle of the field where the tallest stalks grew and discovered a hole. Going back to the house he procured a shovel and a crowbar and dug down until he came upon the lair of the pair. Seven young coyote pups were peacefully sleeping in a bed made of his chicken feathers and then they gave up their lives to the hand of the ruthless destroyer. The old pair had made their escape.

The boys' band of the Masonic Home at Decoto will lead the procession, every band to play the national and patriotic airs during the ceremonies. Miss Hibberd of the Garfield School will have charge of a chorus from that school during the exercises at the cemetery.

SECRETARY WALKER.

Secretary Wilber Walker next read his report. He congratulated the Exchange on the work of the year, referred to the harmony that had prevailed

MAYOR LOOKS FOR A GREATER OAKLAND.

Tells the Merchants He Would Like to See Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond Consolidated.

Nearly every possible means of furthering the commercial and general interests of this city and vicinity was discussed around the banquet board in the Hotel Metropole last night. Among the speakers were many of the prominent public men and merchants of the city, the occasion of their getting together being the annual banquet of the Merchants' Exchange. Sumptuous was the nature of the repast which they partook before interchanging ideas and comparing notes on the work of the Exchange for the past year. Simple floral decorations, carnations on the tables and huckleberry leaves on the chandeliers and mantel set off the surroundings.

Theo. Gier, president of the Exchange, acted both as toastmaster and chairman. On his right and left were Mayor Olney and Vice-president A. Jonas of the Exchange, respectively, while seated around were W. H. Wellby, H. C. Capwell, D. Edward Collins, G. W. Fisher, Cary Howard, F. G. Eben, E. F. Muller, A. H. Schlueter, H. N. Gard, J. L. Chapman, T. W. Cordes, Irving Lewis, F. M. Farwell, Fred Sinclair, W. H. Hillhouse, J. W. Blaine, J. A. Mackinnon, H. D. Cushing, F. J. Lee, D. C. Brown, Fred Becker, William Moller, H. N. Sanborn, C. W. Kinney, H. G. Williams, H. D. Rose, J. F. W. Sohst, J. P. Taylor, George Humphrey, J. Kirchner and R. M. Briare. Covers had been laid for forty guests.

CALLED TO ORDER.

It was precisely 9:30 when cigars were lighted and President Gier rapped the banqueters to order. In a happy manner he introduced the first speaker of the evening, George W. Arper, who would utter a few words of welcome to the guests, including the Mayor and several members of the sister body, the Board of Trade.

"Guests of the occasion," Mr. Arper, began, "we welcome you one and all. We anticipate reforms in the administration of this city in the near future and the conducting of its business on a business basis. In short, we expect good, substantial work to be done within the next two years and in that connection we are exceedingly proud to have with us the honorable, the Mayor, who is so intensely interested in everything that concerns the welfare of the city, the progress, the advancement and material development of the city. Much has been done for Oakland in the past few years by her merchants. They have succeeded in placing the city on the map of the United States and in the course of a very few years more we hope to see that instead of a city of $2,000 to $5,000, as she now has, there will be a population within her boundaries of 200,000 to 300,000. We look for improved streets, and hope that within the next two years we shall be in a position in this respect not to be ashamed to welcome within our gates the next President, whoever he may be. Every member of this body, every citizen, every member of the Board of Trade, every merchant, every man who has property interests in the city should unite fully to put their shoulders to the wheel, to the end that this gathering tonight should be a mile-mark in the line of progress."

MAYOR OLNEY.

Concluding, Mr. Arper was warmly applauded, whereupon Toastmaster Gier introduced the Mayor as the next speaker, alighting Mr. Olney as his "Great Oakland."

The Mayor was very warmly received. After expressing pleasure at being present he proceeded to make a speech which was almost wholly an earnest plea for the consolidation of the adjacent smaller municipalities with this city. He said in part:

"In this country, today, combinations are the rule. It has been found through experience that if capital units that it is able to do its work cheaper, better, more expeditiously and can command a larger market. Labor united secures better wages to the workman and a better place for him in the community. Trusts, if you may call them so, have become an economic question of the day. I am not afraid of them."

"I do not fear labor unions."

"I believe that combinations and labor unions in their places are doing good work for the country. I do not see why there is any objection should not apply to municipalities as well. I believe it would be very much better if the municipalities of Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda, Fruitvale and Richmond were united under the name of the city and county of Alameda. This is the Greater Oakland to which I look forward. For my own part, I am not particular as to the name. It is only a matter of sentiment. But when the matter in question relates to municipal government and to money wrung from the taxpayers there is something more than sentiment—it is a matter of wisdom. Probably in its tax bills this year the county will have to pay $7 cents on the $100, Oakland $1.26 and the State 38 cents, making a total of $2.51. The city and county of San Francisco this year, pays $1.64, having an advance over us of 50 cents on the $100. Of course, having a city and county government would mean additional expense as we would have to pay one-half of the salaries of Superior Judges and we will have to have a Sheriff."

"But with the exception of these officers, your city officers could run municipal affairs of the city and county of Alameda."

At this point the Mayor gave further figures showing that there would be at least a saving of 60 cents on $100 in the tax rate, creating a saving of $480,000 a year which, he said, could be devoted to the formation of children's play grounds and the improvement of the parks. He added that he realized that in Berkeley and Alameda there was a strong feeling against consolidation. He had heard the people of these municipalities say that they would consider the matter when we got better government in Oakland. He concluded by saying that better work had never been done by merchants in any county than what had been done in San Francisco during the last four or five years, and appealed to the merchants on this side of the bay to do for Oakland what had been done for San Francisco and to offset the objections of Alameda and Berkeley taxpayers.

At this point Mr. Gier delivered his annual address, which is printed elsewhere.

THE NEED OF ADEQUATE HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS.

"In the existing program of improvements, everything would seem to be provided for except that of superior hotel accommodations. The Hotel Syndicate which is to be congratulated for the enthusiastic manner in which it is carrying out its many projects, confidence of the people."

J. P. TAYLOR.

President Gier next called upon J. P. Taylor for whom, he said, there was no man better able to speak on the subject opposite his name, "Oakland Harbor."

Mr. Taylor compared the harbor to that of Glasgow, Scotland, with comparisons in favor of that at the doors of Oakland. He proceeded to say that the deepening of the harbor could not be more vigorously insisted upon. The estuary, he said, should be dredged to a uniform depth of 30 feet, and the docks in place of being from 240 to 300 feet should be 400 feet long. If this and other improvements were carried out he had confidence in saying that the people could look forward to the time when Oakland would be one of the greatest seaports and possess one of the safest harbors in the world. He concluded a very able address by some glowing remarks on the probabilities of a great Oriental trade being centered in the near future in Oakland harbor and the sister port of San Francisco.

J. F. W. SOHST.

"Contra Costa Tunnel," a subject with which he showed great familiarity, was that allotted J. F. W. Sohst, who was appropriately introduced by the chairman. Mr. Sohst's talk was largely reminiscent for he has been most intimately associated with this great work since its inception.

He was followed by H. C. Capwell, who delivered a spirited speech urging the merchants to hold the trade which they had already gained for Oakland. The day was past, he said, when it was necessary for any family on this side of the bay to go to San Francisco to make purchases. "We have got the trade now," he said, "and the only question is how to keep it. That can only be done by standing shoulder to shoulder, discussing the subject at meetings like these, making liberal use of the newspapers and entering into the movement that the Mayor said should animate the municipalities on this side of the bay and get together for the common good."

A. JONAS.

Vice-president A. Jonas, chairman of the Banquet Committee, was next called upon. He expressed his pleasure at the presence of the Mayor, and on behalf of the Exchange, wished him strength, prosperity and success in all his undertakings. Mr. Jonas said that the Mayor can count on the merchants generally to assist him in his efforts to make Oakland what it really ought to be, the greatest city on the Pacific Coast.

We should endeavor to secure to Oakland and Alameda county's share of the large number of immigrants and tourists who are now entering California in large numbers. The Merchants' Exchange must continue its efforts to induce the people of Alameda county to trade as much as possible within the limits of Alameda county.

"The Merchants' Exchange," Mr. Walker concluded, "has the reputation of doing things, and will continue to maintain that reputation. The association has but one object, namely, an organized effort for the upbuilding and improvement of the city of Oakland and its merchants. We cannot fail of success as long as we are energetic, harmonious and have the support and the results that had been attained. Among these results he remarked the following:

The early completion and opening to use of the Contra Costa tunnel.

The securing of Congressional action to secure the deepening of the main channel of Oakland Harbor to thirty (30) feet, which will be of vast benefit to Oakland.

The early completion of the electric road to Point Richmond, which will be of great benefit to many lines of retail trade.

The improvement of the northern approaches to our city. Telegraph avenue, San Pablo avenue, Shattuck avenue and Adeline street, and should be repaired in the most substantial manner, thus furnishing each access to the business center of the city.

SALEM IN A STEW.

The ancient bigotry and intolerance of Salem, Massachusetts, have been revived by a discussion relative to the propriety of perpetuating the persecutions of early days in enduring form.

Lawrence and Cassandra Southwick, Quakers who were thrashed at the cart-tail through the streets of Salem for "prophesying" there in Puritan days, are to be commemorated there by a descendant, Frederick Fanning Ayer, if his design for a monument be accepted. He proposes to commemorate the whipping by the statue of a tiger typifying superstition and exhibited with ravening jaws reared above a half-striped woman, into whose shoulders his claws are fixed, while a man strives to loosen the grasp.

This project has excited the ire of the descendants of the Puritans, who still constitute a good part of the population of Salem. They object to having the tricks and manners of their ancestors portrayed in an analogy so bitter and ferocious. They are ready to admit that burning witches, flaying Quakers and cutting off the ears of Catholics, as was humanely practiced during the saintly days of the Mathers, was savage and cruel, but they cannot endure the thought of having these things allegorically represented by a stone tiger.

But the objection urged against Mr. Ayer's statue exhibits some of the old leaven of intolerance. Why should objection be made to typifying superstition and persecution for precisely what they were and are—savage, brutal, cruel and senseless? Apparently it is assumed that the descendants of the persecuted should draw the veil of oblivion over the deeds of the persecutors to avoid wounding the sensibilities of the descendants of the latter. Hardly. There is no place so appropriate for an inanimate rebuke to religious persecution as Salem, which was its chief seat in America.

Science makes its way slowly against prejudice in some localities. Here are the people of Macon, Georgia, up in arms against a compulsory vaccination law. They first set up that it is the inalienable right of free men to die of small pox without interference on the part of the government, and follow it up by denying that vaccination is any preventive to small pox. Brother Jasper would probably be at home in that locality. His dictum that the "sun do move" seems precisely suited to the enlightenment of that community.

The telegraph says the fish didn't bite very well for Mr. Cleveland while on his latest excursion. Perhaps Grouper fishes like he does politics—with out changing his bait.

ROOSEVELT AN INSPIRATION.

The President's visit to California has been an inspiration for good citizenship. His speeches have been directed to showing that the character of our government rests upon individual responsibility. It is a common sense proposition that if men fail in their duty individually they will fail in it collectively, but common sense is not always the common view. The President has put into a different form the axiom that a government in a free country is just as good and no better than the mass of the people, but he has individualized it by making a personal matter for each man to consider.

It is a truth that he has constantly impressed upon the young, and he has further emphasized it by urging upon popular attention that good citizenship is not a negative quantity—not a mere quality—but an active policy. It is the duty of the citizen to do his part in making things go right, in having truth and justice prevail. The man who keeps his hands clean but does nothing at all to keep politics and business and public morals clean is a cipher. He does no harm, but he does no good. He neither assists the good nor resists the evil. Such men are contemptible in the strenuous philosophy of the President, who believes a man should do a man's part in the affairs of life from politics to punching cattle. He preaches the gospel of wholesome, manly activity.

When a defense of the indefensible is attempted, one or both of two things is invariably done. The first is to tell a falsehood and the other is to attack the motives of the person who has told the truth. This has been the rule since time began and will probably be found prevailing when the last trumpet blows. When one tells a lie to excuse something that has been done, it is perfectly natural that he should follow it up by instituting that the motive of the truth teller is bad. This ancient formula is rarely departed from.

Mohammedan outrages on the Christians in Turkey are quite thrown in the shade by the Christian outrages on the Jews in Russia.

What if the Boxers in China should suggest sending missionaries to Russia to civilize the Christians there?

ON STANDING PAT.

President Roosevelt is a protectionist. As such he is opposed to tinkering with the tariff in accordance with the Democratic theory that its protective features should be eliminated.

He is, therefore, not in favor of going to the country next year on a platform demanding tariff revision, which would be tantamount to a confession that the protective tariff is, as the Democrats assert, a fraud and a failure. The movement of commerce and industry, by internal action, may develop inequalities in the tariff of a character to require legislative treatment. But these can be corrected by Congressional action from time to time, as they arise. They do not imply that there is any need for general revision of the tariff, nor do they call for a declaration in the platform, which could be construed on one hand as a threat against the protective system, and on the other as an admission that the tariff policy of the Republican party has proved a failure.

In other words, Democratic free traders will not be permitted to dictate a tariff plank for Republican protectionists.

Hence the Republicans will stand pat for protection in the next national platform. The President appreciates the dilemma in which the Democrats and mugs would put the Republican party.

RABBI FRIEDLANDER.

The pulpit has always been strong in Oakland. There are few places, if any, on the Pacific Coast where the eloquence and learning of religious teachers are more appreciated than in this city. In this we see a potent reason for the long continuance of the clergy in their pastoral charges, and the warm and intimate relations that exist between teachers and their flocks. This condition applies to no particular sect, but is, generally speaking, characteristic of all our religious organizations.

A recent example of this harmonious relation was given in the testimonial presented to Rabbi Friedlander by the members of his congregation. After more than ten years' service he remains their teacher, better loved and paid than ever before. Surely no higher encomium could be paid ministers or congregations.

In such instances as this we see the springs of the power, influence and independence of the ministry. When the pastors are righteous, able and untrammeled in utterance, they are a mighty force in any community on the side of morality and good citizenship. When years of labor only bring them closer to the hearts of their congregations, we have an evidence of the existence of ideal relations between the pulpit and pew.

Rabbi Friedlander is an illustration of the appreciation that a strong, upright man will receive in the faithful discharge of his duty. During all the years he has labored in Oakland, Rabbi Friedlander has ever striven to make the community better and broader. He has not confined his activities to his congregation, but has participated in all public movements for the betterment of conditions and the enlightenment of mankind. He has been not the least of a group of ministers of various denominations who have been a compelling force in this community and have given Oakland a reputation abroad as the abode of advanced religious thought.

Shortly the Grand Army of the Republic will meet in San Francisco for the annual re-union, and we confidently expect to see the addresses delivered there to be keyed to the same high patriotic note sounded by the Confederate chieftain. There is talk of the veterans of both armies fraternizing on that occasion more freely and cordially than ever before though they have long met and mingled in a spirit of generous amity, and on many occasions have jointly figured in public demonstrations. The country has had its baptism of blood, and from it the nation has received a nobler, purer faith, a broader and more enduring patriotism. The vision that lighted the eye of Lincoln at the Gettysburg dedication is being realized.

STRONG EVIDENCE OF FAITH

Osgood Bros. Guarantee that Hyomei Will cure the Worst Case of Catarrh in Oakland.

When one of the most reputable concerns of Oakland guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or they will return the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of that remedy. It is in this way that Osgood Brothers are selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made so many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in Oakland and vicinity.

Hyomei is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wineglass. Just breathe it in by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

It destroys all germ life in the air passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membranes contain catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its work of healing.

When using this treatment the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountain high above the sea level where grow balmy trees and plants which make the air pure by giving off volatile aromatic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

Remember that if Hyomei does not cure you Osgood Brothers will refund your money. This is a good time to cure catarrh by this natural method and prevent catarrhal colds that are so common at this season.

A PATRIOTIC ADDRESS.

The address of General John B. Gordon to the Confederates at New Orleans was tuned to the highest pitch of patriotism. It was a notable utterance in two aspects—its mellowness, temperance and philosophic view of the past and its high, hopeful, patriotic look forward to the future. This paragraph, which epitomizes the sentiment of the address, breathes a spirit that can be appreciated as fully in Maine as in Georgia:

"We will not indulge on this continental—this political millennial morning—not at other times in any bitterness. We feel none. We pity those who do. We have long since drawn the curtain of oblivion over the regretful and unseemly things of the past, and we cherish as Americans the valor and noble deeds of both armies and of all sections. We are satisfied with our record, and the power that would attempt to make us blush for it would be both

CHRISTIAN CHURCH RENT IN TWAIN.

Dean Van Kirk of Berkeley Seminary Charged With False Teaching and Friends, With Deceit.

There is war in the Christian Church—war in which the contending factions, so to speak, are grasping at each other's throat with what result cannot, at this writing, be foretold.

Thus far, however, it is only the leaders of the aggregation who appear actively in the fray, the main body of the organization standing by watching with mingled sensations of sorrow, mortification and wonder over a wrangle which they say is calculated to injure the cause which the participants are supposed to have at heart.

Despite the fact that the battle is fought at long range, there are not a few shots which have had a telling effect because missiles have fallen around the Berkeley Bible Seminary of the University town and the sound which has come from within that institution indicates that someone has been struck.

PARTICIPANTS.

This battle has been in progress for some time. It has been led on the part of the assailants by Christian Standard, an able organ of the Christian Church, which is published in Cincinnati.

This publication represents a coterie of the church which charges that the Berkeley Bible Seminary, particularly, did not question the accuracy of the representations concerning the practical unanimity of the students' testimony. But it seems that we were entirely too credulous here, as the accompanying diagram discloses.

THE DIAGRAM.

Then follows a diagram which looks to the average eye like a balloon in ascension, containing a number of persons, each of which is designated in what is peculiarly its own.

The purpose of this diagram is to show that Dean Van Kirk is teaching a Christianity in which Christ is represented as reflected by uninspired writers and is not the real Christ, but the Christ distorted by human ignorance and prejudice.

This diagram, the Standard says, was sent by a student named Meeker to the Examining Board with his testimony, and a copy of which was made from the original drawing by Gano G. Kennedy of this city.

DIAGRAM SUPPRESSED.

Commenting upon this diagram the Standard says:

"This diagram was and is a most important piece of evidence sent to the Board, and suppressed by somebody, but no doubt the whole matter will writers' gathered up was a record of these human traditions. So, the editor reasons, according to this Seminary diagram, they had in the New Testament not even an uninspired history of Christ written by eye-witnesses, but only a record compiled from human traditions in their nature unreliable of what Christ did and taught. Of course, as this body of traditions was uninspired, the second-hand record of it was also uninspired.

APOSTLES TESTIFIED FALSELY.

The editor of the Standard concludes from this, that the New Testament writers, alleged to be Apostles, and their associates, testified falsely when they represented themselves as having seen and heard the things about which they wrote or as having received them directly from eye-witnesses. The editor again unburdens himself on the subject of suppression and says:

SUPPRESSION AGAIN.

"But, in considering this diagram, we must not lose sight of the fact that it has been suppressed testimony and was kept away from the California brethren. More than this, the suppression is made that no such damaging testimony existed, but that the voice of the students was practically unanimous in favor of the soundness of the Seminary teaching.

M'ANENEY ACCUSED.

"But the diagram, important as it is, was not all the suppressed testimony whose existence has recently come to our knowledge. A letter from another ex-student containing damaging testimony against Dean Van Kirk as a teacher in the Seminary was sent to the Board, but was suppressed by somebody in the hands of President McAneney, because he had refused to allow brethren who were interested in the matter to see it. Such refusal under the circumstances, is a confession of the damaging character of the testimony which the letter contains.

DISCREDITS REPORTS.

"We are not prepared to say how much more testimony was sent to the Board, and suppressed by somebody, but no doubt the whole matter will have never been found wanting when weighed and measured and tried for service and sacrifice?

"And before I name them I will only allow me to say that it is here today as it was when I was a boy, half a century ago in England. The various churches of our people, often widely separated, were comprehended in leading men.

HONORED BY THE BROTHERHOOD.

"In California, the churches have their eminence and, therefore, representative men, who are leaders because of their character and their work. These men when Christ calls for the highest service on the best exhibition of Christian manhood and in the discharge of the greatest responsibilities, are easily first in the thought and respect of the brotherhood and they are easily elected by the people of God to manage their sacred enterprises and to shape, under God, the highest affairs of the church. These men, so called, are honored by the brotherhood always according to the dictates of truth and righteousness.

SMITE FLOWER AND STRENGTH.

"There are not many men in any State of the quality of leading brethren, but if you traduce these, pronounce these in any measure unworthy, you smite the flower and strength of our churches and grievously hurt the masses of our people, who hold them in the highest confidence. Briefly then, who are these men. Volumes would ordinarily be required to tell the story, but a few words must suffice."

THE TRUSTEES.

Mr. Butler then gives a biographical sketch of the Trustees, A. N. McCoy, Judge E. A. Bridges, J. H. McCullough, Prof. A. M. Elsler, W. F. Martin, Alexander Campbell Smith, Mr. Judson Lyman McGuire and H. D. McAneney. Mr. Butler then concludes as follows:

STAND ABOUT THE DEAN.

"These nine men, constituting the Board of Trustees, stand as a unit among themselves and they stand intelligently and honestly and manly about their assailed Dean of the Seminary, Dr. Hiram Van Kirk, because they know that he is Christian gentleman of refinement and scholarship, and every way worthy of their confidence, respect and support. These nine men are reverend scions of whom, not only is California proud, but as far as they are known in the East they are known as the bearers of the ark of the Lord who will stand on the mountain of the Lord until like Moses of old, the Lord shall take them to infinite glory."

DEAN VAN KIRK'S INDIGNATION.

Then follows the denial of Dr. Hiram Van Kirk, which is put in the form of an address to his fellow brethren, and which reads as follows:

"To the Brethren of California: The denial of Gano G. Kennedy, lately published in the Christian Standard, is another of the deliberate lies by which that paper is trying to injure the Seminary. I never made such a diagram or taught the doctrine implied by it. HIRAM VAN KIRK."

Following this denial and its compliment to the veracity of the Standard, is another topical utterance from H. D. McAneney at whom was directed the insinuation on the part of the Standard editor regarding the suppression of what was considered material facts before the investigation of the Board. The forceful telegram of Mr. McAneney is as follows:

CONTUMACIOUS. FALSE DODS.

"Oakland, California, May 12, 1903. J. A. Lord, Editor Christian Standard, 216 East Ninth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio: Your editorial states that Meeker sent to Seminary Board the diagram by Gano Kennedy published in the Standard, and all charges that I withheld testimony from Board are contemptible falsehoods. Publish immediately. H. D. McANENEY."

According to Van Kirk and McAneney, the truth is not in the opposite side. According to the editor of the Christian Standard Christian virtues do not seem to be domineered in the Berkeley Bible Seminary.

Thus far, however, Meeker and Gano G. Kennedy have not been heard from.

FLORENCE ROBERTS AT MACDONALD.

"Candide" on Friday night and Saturday matinee, "Zaza" on Saturday night and "Sapho" on Sunday are the attractive performances announced for the engagement of the talented emotional actress, Florence Roberts, beginning this coming Friday evening. It would be difficult to select three more trying and more noted roles than these, and it demonstrates the great genius and versatility of the brilliant actress personating them. "Candide" with its abundance of pathos, scarcely relieved by a breath of comedy, "Zaza" with its merry atmosphere which is tried in an instant of satire and tragic interest, and "Sapho," the woman of Parisian Bohemian life, whose mother loves finally triumphs over vice; these are roles which are not to be a temptation by any but the most capable artist. Miss Roberts' genius has proved equal to the task of personating these characters, therefore it is not surprising that she is now classed among America's greatest stars.

REPLY OF THE ACCUSED.

To this deadly criticism and bitter denunciation in the Pacific Christian of this city, Thomas D. Butler replies with an addendum to the report of the Trustees of the Berkeley Seminary to which the Christian Standard has taken exception. The reply takes the form of an article on the personnel of the Board of Trustees of the Bible Seminary in question. Mr. Butler says:

PERSONNEL OF TRUSTEES.

"To begin with, let me ask who are these men who stand by the Board they have stood for many years, when the brotherhood of the State has exalted them, because in all their history they

REPORT REPUDIATED.

"It was shown through the medium of a publication known as the Pacific Churchman, a journal of the Christian Church in this city.

So objectionable, it seems, had become Van Kirk's teaching to some of the members of his religious society, that an investigation of his conduct was ordered some time ago, and the report of which was published. In that report it is alleged, Van Kirk was absolved from heretical teachings and given a halo as a worthy disciple of the lowly Jesus of Nazareth.

REPORT REPUDIATED.

The report was repudiated by the Christian Standard of Cincinnati as unreliable and is varnished in favor of Van Kirk. In the current number, the Standard paves the way to make a supplementary report, and at the same time charges fraud and deceit in the making of the original record.

Among others whom it enumerates in connection with the showing is an attorney of this city named Gano G. Kennedy.

The Standard then goes on to say:

"Now the value of a report like this for the people for whom it is made, is that it is based on all the facts and evidence which may have been presented, presumably to an impartial tribunal. The trustees promised an investigation so broad and thorough in character that no reasonable doubt in the premises should remain."

UTTER FAILURE OF REPORT.

"It was shown in our review that the report utterly failed in this matter of thoroughness, but we are not prepared for the deliberate suppression of testimony, which we are now enabled to prove. We took the statement of the Board at its face value, and put-

UNINSPIRED RECORD.

The editor then goes into an elaborate exposition of the chief points in the diagram, the import of which is that, as a second removal from the "Inspired Christ" they have the new testimony "as an uninspired record gathered up by uninspired writers," and, as no other element is introduced between the "Inspired Christ" and the New Testament, except "traditions," it follows that what these "uninspired

COFFEE "A LIGHT BOOZE" Do You Drink It?

A minister's wife had quite a tussle with coffee and her experience is interesting. She says: "During the two years of my training as a nurse while on night duty, I became addicted to coffee drinking, for between midnight and four in the morning, when the patients were asleep, there was little to do except make the rounds, and it was quite natural that I should want a good, hot cup of coffee about that time. It stimulated me and I could keep awake better.

"After three or four years of coffee drinking I became a nervous wreck and thought I simply could not live without my coffee. All this time I was subject to frequent bilious attacks, sometimes so severe as to keep me in bed for several days. After being married, my husband begged me to leave off coffee, for he feared that it had already hurt me almost beyond repair, so I resolved to make an effort and release myself from the hurtful habit. I began taking Postum Food Coffee and for a few days felt the languid, tired feeling from the lack of the stimulant, but I liked the taste of Postum and that answered for the breakfast beverage all right.

There is war in the Christian Church—war in which the contending factions, so to speak, are grasping at each other's throat with what result cannot, at this writing, be foretold.

Thus far, however, it is only the leaders of the aggregation who appear actively in the fray, the main body of the organization standing by watching with mingled sensations of sorrow, mortification and wonder over a wrangle which they say is calculated to injure the cause which the participants are supposed to have at heart.

Despite the fact that the battle is fought at long range, there are not a few shots which have had a telling effect because missiles have fallen around the Berkeley Bible Seminary of the University town and the sound which has come from within that institution indicates that someone has been struck.

This battle has been in progress for some time. It has been led on the part of the assailants by Christian Standard, an able organ of the Christian Church, which is published in Cincinnati.

This publication represents a coterie of the church which charges that the Berkeley Bible Seminary,

WORK ON NEW BUILDING TO BEGIN AT ONCE.

School Board Will Lose No Time in Utilizing Funds Granted By Special Tax.

BERKELEY, May 20.—No time will be lost by the local Board of Education in expending the $25,000 granted last Saturday by the special tax election for the improvement of the present school facilities. At the meeting of the board last night action was taken to have the much needed additions to the several schools and the new school building on Russ street built at once. To hasten matters the work of securing an architect and, subsequently, contractors, was left in the hands of the School-house and Site Committee, which was instructed to go ahead with the work immediately. An architect is to be engaged to draw up the plans, when bids for the work will be advertised by the board. Although all of the proposed additions can not be completed in time for the opening of school after the summer vacation, an effort will be made to have the work at the Lorin School completed by that time, as the need there is the most urgent. As stated in the election notices the money is to be used in building four-room additions to the Whittier, Lincoln and McKinley schools, and the erection of a new four-room building on Russ street and College avenue.

A complaint was made to the board that the pupils of the Commercial School have been doing professional typesetting under the regulation process. D. S. Waterman, principal of the school, when asked for a statement in regard to the matter said that the girls had been doing professional work during school hours free of charge and outside of school hours at their own prices. He also said that the professional stenographers often took work at $4 a day and hired the pupils to help them out at $1 a day. The matter was laid on the table. The question of purchasing the typewriters used at the school was referred to the Finance Committee.

The request of Miss Marian Hascom for vacation from August 1st to September 1st was placed on the file until the time arrives for action to be taken.

The clerk was instructed to sign the contract for street improvement in front of the school site on Russ street and College avenue.

quert given in Odd Fellows' Hall. It was a German supper that the merry party sat down to, and from the way things went, W. K. Weir must have attended to his part of the program about right. At the banquet, T. Donahue acted as toastmaster, and during the evening the evening was thrown open to humorous recitations and songs, among those taking part being Joe Mills, Thomas Rickard, Berkeley quartet, Frank Fowden, W. L. Thorne, Virgil Shuey, A. Cloudmann, C. Faneley and Clinton R. Morse.

PARTICIPANTS IN SCOTCH MUSICAL ARE ENTERTAINED.

BERKELEY, May 20.—A pleasant musical evening was given last night by Mr. L. V. Sweeny, instructor in music at the public schools, to the members of the club of the Scotch Regiment garrison, as $135 is already paid to a junior. No action was taken in the matter.

WILL BE HANDSOME EDIFICE OF STONE.

BERKELEY, May 20.—In the University Chronicle, which appeared yesterday, there are a few paragraphs printed about California Hall, the new North Hall for the University, the location of which has already been surveyed for.

The clerk was authorized to call for bids for coal to be used in the various schools.

The bill of D. S. Adams, Census Marshal, and his deputies, was referred back to the Finance Committee.

There was some doubt as to whether the men had not taken too long for the work.

A bill was received for fire extinguishers and for placing them in the schools, amounting in all to $66.

It was referred to the Finance Committee.

A bill of $22 for work on the yard at the San Pablo School was allowed.

The following report of the Finance Committee was accepted and warrants ordered drawn for the several amounts:

William Bowe, $25; Alexander Yost Company, $6.25; Bruns & Co., $16.40; Contra Costa Water Co., $6.40; S. L. Church, $21; C. Robinson, $4.20; Contra Costa Water Co., $28.65; H. M. DR. J. P. TORMEY IS ELECTED TO OFFICE.

FIRST RECONNOISSANCE HAS BEEN COMPLETED.

Linguistic Survey of California Being Made By University Scientists.

DR. J. P. TORMEY.

BERKELEY, May 20.—The first reconnaissance for the linguistic survey of California has been completed by Dr. Kroeger of the University of California, who, with Dr. Dixon of Harvard, has just written an exhaustive account of the explorations made in this State. The work of studying the tongues of those few Indian tribes that are left and of tracing their connections one with another and with other Indian tribes of the Pacific and north has been carried on more thoroughly and to a greater extent than ever before. The results of these investigations throw great light on the early western tribes and on the early historic and prehistoric invasions and migrations.

The corresponding ethnological reconnaissance has not yet been ended. The ground has been covered, with trifling exceptions, as far south as the upper end of the San Joaquin basin and as far north as the head of the Sacramento.

The work is being done through a Yokute Indian, who came to the University in February. The region south of the Tehachapi still needs much field work as a preliminary to adequate ethnological study.

Three thousand mechanical records of the verb forms of the Hupa language were made on the Rousselot apparatus in December and January by Mr. Goddard, with the help of Julius Marsh, a boy from Goddard's school, and twenty-five recordings representing the different vowel sounds of the Hupa language, for enlargement by micro-photography to the size required for their study by the mechanical curve-analyzer. Photography of the Hupa language, which had been taken by the mouth of the Hupa boy, by means of which records were made of the different consonants of the Hupa language. Mr. Goddard was about to extend greatly his list of Hupa words, though he had only 1000 in his vocabulary.

During a stay at Hupa in Humboldt county, Mr. Goddard went through all of his Hupa texts with an Indian interpreter, making sure of the correctness of the text and clarifying any difficulties. The process was repeated with an uneducated Indian girl. Texts were obtained of a few myths and needlework formulas, and three additional Hupa songs were recorded on the phonograph.

The Department of Anthropology is about to publish two papers by Mr. Goddard, one dealing with the phonology of the Hupa language, and the other with its morphology.

UNIVERSITY CHRONICLE HAS MANY ITEMS OF INTEREST.

BERKELEY, May 20.—The University Chronicle, the official quarterly record of University life, which appeared yesterday, has opened with the words, "The University's Duty to the State," the address delivered by Governor Farnum at the Charter Day exercises. President Jordan's Charter Day address, "American University," is a discussion of the problems of the University.

Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Willey, who as vice-president of the College of California was the first presiding officer of the University, contributes an interesting paper entitled "The Foundations of the University." This essay was originally prepared as an address at the annual University of California dinner of the San Francisco University Club.

An account of the last meeting of the Association of American Universities, the organization which was formed through the initiative of the University of California, contributes an interesting paper entitled "The Foundations of the University."

A. O. Leach, who represented the University in the last annual meeting.

Mr. H. A. Overstreet contributes an interesting paper on "Oxford in the Past and Present," of particular interest at present, because of the discussion of the Victoria of Cecil Rhodes scholarships.

Professor Henderson, in the department of University Record, gives an account of recent University progress, including a resume of the acts of the last Legislature directly affecting the University of California.

Professor Kroeger has prepared a plan for a new school of architecture, a full four-year's course— together with an account of California Hall, which is about to be erected; a resume of recent changes in the Law Department, and a discussion of the Lick Observatory and a discussion of some recent work in anthropology, including mechanical records of native California languages and publications in the fields of Egyptian archaeology and American ethnology.

MONEY NOW READY FOR NEW LIBRARY.

BERKELEY, May 20.—Word was received by Town Clerk Merrill yesterday from Carnegie saying that the money for the new Berkeley library was ready, and that it would be forwarded in installments of $5,000 as the work progressed.

SHOT.FRANK PRICE IS KILLED BY AN ATTORNEY IN SONORA.

NORA.

SONORA, May 20.—As a result of an attack made upon J. C. Webster, an attorney-at-law of this city, Frank Price, a brother of ex-Sheriff Price, is dead with a bullet wound through his heart and J. M. Watkins, a saloonkeeper, has a serious bullet wound in his head.

The fight occurred in the attorney's office at 10 o'clock last evening and grew out of the fact that Webster recently secured a divorce for Watkins' wife. The divorced husband often threatened to do the attorney harm, but the latter avoided him to keep out of trouble.

Watkins entered the office and found the attorney alone yesterday afternoon. A moment later Price, who was a bosom friend of Watkins, also entered, closing the door behind him. A fearful struggle ensued. Some shots were fired rapidly succession and then the attorney emerged from the building with a battered and swollen head, but a smoking pistol in his hand told how he had done battle with his adversary. He surrendered to the Sheriff, who after making his wounds dressed was taken to jail.

Both he and Watkins will recover. A Coroner's Inquest is being held over the body of Price.

Public sentiment favors the attorney.

Frank Price was a mining man, 28 years of age. His home was at 375 Elbert street, where his widow, Mrs. Lettie Price, now resides. There are no children. He was married about five years ago.

About four years ago he and his brother, J. T. Price, went to the Klondike and struck it rich. The deceased was one of the owners of the Hot Air mine, which promised a great deal of gold. Price said the brother went to Sonora yesterday.

According to a telephone message from his brother, E. L. Price, formerly Sheriff of Tuolumne county, Frank accompanied his wife to the Klondike and his brother to Webster's office while Frank sat in the lobby. The men quarreled and Frank went to the office to find out what the trouble was. He was then shot through the heart.

The father of the Price boys is W. L. Price, a pioneer stockman of Sonora. Another son, G. W. Price, is also a mining man.

HALCYON THANKS
DELEGATES.SENATOR KNOWLAND BACKED FOR POSITION OF GRAND
PRESIDENT N. S. G. W.

Halcyon Parlor, No. 146, N. S. G. W., was the host last evening at a banquet at Foresters' Hall, Alameda, to tendered the delegates from Alameda county to the recent session of the Grand Parlor in Bakersfield. It was one of the largest and most representative gatherings of Native Sons which has assembled in Alameda for many years.

Besides the delegates from the parishes of Alameda county in whose honor the banquet was given, there were present the grand officers of the order residing in the bay counties. The tables were tastefully arranged. At each plate was a tiny silk bear flag, the official emblem of the order.

Assemblyman J. Clem Bates officiated as toastmaster. When the hour for speech-making arrived, he exclaimed that the banquet had been arranged as an evidence of Halcyon Parlor's appreciation of the loyal support accorded Senator Joseph R. Knowland at the recent session of the Grand Parlor by the delegates from this count. He called upon Senator Knowland to express this appreciation for him, if and in the parlor.

Senator Knowland very feelingly thanked the assembled delegates for their loyal and enthusiastic support in his recent contest for the position of grand third vice-president. He declared that he had rather suffer a defeat with the support of the delegates from Alameda county, than to have triumphed, but with that triumph to have the knowledge that his own country was not loyal. Not for a single moment, or in the slightest degree, declared the speaker, had his defeat lessened his love for the order or caused the slightest soreness. Alameda county, in the future as in the past, will labor unceasingly for the up-building of the organization.

GALLAGHER'S TRIBUNE.

The speech of Grand Second Vice-President James L. Gallagher of San Francisco, who followed, aroused a great enthusiasm.

"Soldom," he declared, "was he ever presented of the delegates from a county meeting at the banquet board after suffering a defeat to annoince to the members of the order throughout the State that their loyalty had not been shaken, that their enthusiasm had not been lessened." He stated that to-day there was not a member of the order who was held in greater esteem than Senator Knowland, the graceful manner in which he had accepted his defeat winning for him the friendship of every delegate in the Grand Parlor. It would not be a question of time, he maintained, when Halcyon Parlor's representative would be elevated to the honored position of grand president.

GEOGRAPHY OR NO GEOGRAPHY.

Grand Secretary Lunstedt spoke in a like strain, declaring that every member of the order recognized the services rendered by Brother Knowland.

Grand Treasurer Henry B. Martin, who, as the toastmaster said, had held that office from time immemorial, spoke eulogistically of the work of Senator Knowland in preserving the historic landmarks of the State, a work that was being appreciated by the people of California. He declared that when Brother Knowland's name was again presented he would be elected by a practically unanimous vote, geography or no geography.

Grand Trustee L. A. Moeser and Frank R. Wehe voiced the sentiments of the preceding speakers, pledging their future support. They were followed by J. Emmett Hayden, grand sentinel.

PERSISTENT EFFORT.

The following delegates from the parishes of Alameda county were called upon for speeches and respond id: W. H. Gentry of Oakland Parlor; E. Planer, J. J. McElroy and D. C. Crawford of Piedmont; E. F. Garrison and B. H. Dean of Athens; H. A. Sagehorn of Brooklyn, and Henry Powell of Eden Parlor at Haywards. Without a single exception these delegates announced their determination to continue their efforts until Brother Knowland had reached the highest office within the gift of the Grand Parlor.

Remarks were also made by W. H. L. Hynes, who delivered one of the most eloquent addresses of the evening; A. B. Tracy, Dr. Powell of Haywards and others. A telegram of regret was read from Grand President McNible of Stockton, Congressman-elect Tom Wynn of San Francisco, and Grand Trustee Barker of San Jose.

THE GUESTS.

Besides the members of Halcyon Parlor there were present the following: James L. Gallagher, Henry Lunstedt, Henry S. Martin, L. A. Moeser, Frank R. Wehe, E. A. Moeser, H. A. Sagehorn, W. H. L. Hynes, J. F. Hanson and F. O. Schuman.

The delegates present were John E. Geary and Henry Powell from Eden Parlor at Haywards; J. J. McElroy, E. Planer and D. C. Crawford of Piedmont Parlor; Henry Sagehorn of Brooklyn Parlor; B. H. Dean and E. F. Garrison of Athens Parlor; E. P. Cook and W. H. H. Gentry of Oakland Parlor, and C. F. Fraiser of Berkeley Parlor.

FUNERAL OF STEEL
MASTER JONES.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 20.—Arrangements for the funeral of Benjamin F. Jones, the great steel master, who died yesterday, were completed today. Services will be held at the family residence in Allegheny tomorrow and will be of the most simple character. The interment will be in Allegheny Cemetery.

All of the Jones plants and interests will be closed Thursday and Friday.

There will be no change whatever in the personnel or policy of the company as a result of the death of Mr. Jones, who, for years, held complete control of the company. Run offs were revived, however, that as a result of the sad event, a deal with the United States Steel Corporation might be more easily possible. Friends declared that absorption would not be brought any nearer.

The California Northwestern Railway makes special round trip rates to many points on its road for the summer season.

It also makes considerable reductions to many points in the suburban, and to some on Saturday and Sundays, with a return limit the following Monday, and a Sunday half rates or one fare for the round-trip governors. This makes frequent trips easy and allows visits to friends who are summering along the line.

CANADA'S TRADE WITH BRITONFRENCH PEOPLE IN DOMINION OPPOSE FURTHER AID IN ENGLAND'S WARS.

QUEBEC, May 20.—Canadians of every class are discussing Joseph Chamberlain's recent speech at Birmingham in favor of trade-reciprocity within the British Empire. The preferential trade idea is generally popular, but the prejudice against further Canadian assistance to Britain in her foreign wars is very strong in French Canada.

The Cabinet Ministers at Ottawa will not discuss the speech.

The members and supporters of the government affect to have heard that the threat of the Canadian administration has had much to do with Mr. Chamberlain's recent utterances.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, a personal favorite of the Canadian, made a positive statement to that effect. Premier Parent of Quebec and Wm. Price, president of the Quebec Board of Trade, strongly approve the preferential-trade principle, and Mr. Price also believes in colonial contributions to the British army or navy.

Mr. Britton, together with Milton K. Smith, who will be best man, leave Monday, May 26, for Chicago, where they will spend a few days. Mr. Britton will then go to Tennessee to meet his fiancee. Mr. Smith will go to New York, Boston, and other Eastern cities. He will return, however, in time for the wedding, which will take place in Goodlettsville, Tenn., Thursday, June 4.

The party will remain away about four weeks, after which they will return to Oakland, where Mr. Britton has a beautiful home prepared for himself and bride. Mrs. John A. Britton, mother of the groom, will go to Tennessee to witness the ceremony, and will return early in order to be in Oakland to welcome the bride and groom to their new home.

This evening twelve young men will give Mr. Britton an elaborate dinner at the Piedmont Club House. This will be in the nature of a farewell.
